Jack Ray Marries
Louisiana Girl
Miss Norma Doramus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Doramus, of Maplewood, La. and Jack Edward Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ray of this city were married at 4 p. m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian church in Lake Charles. The Reverend R. D. Earnest performed the double ring ceremony. Palms furnished a background for the ceremony which was solemnized before the altar flanked with baskets of marooni daisies, and gladioli, and seven branched candelabra. The bride couple exchanged their vows under an arch entwined with white flowers and greenery. Family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. M. J. Dugan, church organist, played the traditional nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. James Greenwood, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white lace net fashioned with a fitted bodice over white satin. The low square neckline was outlined with a ruffle of net, and the long sleeves buttoned at the wrist, were pointed over the hands. The full skirt, with satin and net lace paneling, ended in a short train. Her illusion veil was caught to a coronet of seed pearls and embossed orange blossoms, and extended the length of the train. She carried a white Bible, centered with a white orchid, split carnations, and white brides roses.

Miss Patsy Stokes, of Little Rock was maid of honor, and Mrs. O. G. Doramus, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Gerry Norcom served as bridesmaid and Miss Kay Frances Ray, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

Miss Stokes, and Mrs. Doramus wore gowns of green. Miss Norcom, pink and Miss Ray, yellow. The gowns were fashioned alike, with fitted bodice of embroidered eyelet organza, with puff sleeves, square neck in front coming to a point in back. The skirts were long and very full. Mitts of embroidered organza, and headbands in a floral pattern matching the bouquet completed their ensembles. They carried colonial bouquets of carnations and asters in colors harmonizing with their gowns.

Olin Jones of Hope, served as best man, and groomsmen were Mason Lindsey, Sammy Segar of Lake Charles, Kenneth Daugherty, Beaumont, Tex. and Richard Doramus, brother of the bride, Maplewood, La.

Mrs. Doramus, mother of the bride, wore a fall gown of brown crepe, with a corsage of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ray, the bridegroom's mother wore a winter green dress with black accessories, and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Maplewood immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with the tiered wedding cake encircled with fern and white bridal flowers. Candelabra holding tall white tapers cast soft light over the bridal scene.

A large arrangement of marooni daisies, and gladioli centered the buffet, and similar arrangements were placed elsewhere in the reception rooms.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Monie McLaughlin, Miss Phoebe Loveall, Miss Gerry McClendon, and Miss Mary Prout of Little Rock. They were dressed in pastel gowns with corsages of harmonizing colors.

For their wedding trip to the Gulf coast, the bride chose an early fall model of brown faille with gold trim, and brown accessories. Her brown hat was trimmed in gold and she wore matching gloves. She pinned the white orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Upon their return the couple will make their home in Lake Charles.

The bride graduated from Sulphur High School in June, and the bridegroom, a graduate of Hope High School, attended John McNeese Junior College, Lake Charles, and is employed by the Equitable Life Insurance Company in Lake Charles.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Proue and daughters Mary Frances, and Edith, of Little Rock, Mrs. John T. Simpson, aunt of the bride, Nevada, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Bowden, Hope, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bass, Shreveport, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Echols Locke, of Hope, Ark.

Ward, a senior from Texarkana, was recently awarded a Letter of Commendation which subsequently recommended him for the Distinguished Military Student Award at Ouachita college, revealed Lt. Colonel Utley, Ouachita college.

Cadet Ward is the Grandson of Dr. G. E. Cannon of this city.

President Fearful of Living Cost

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, Sept. 21.—(AP)—President Truman said today he is concerned about the high cost of living and he is working on plans to meet it.

He told a news conference he will act as speedily as possible but is trying to avoid the mistakes of the last world war.

The President said his administration does not want the nation to go through the travail of the last price control period when it had to follow the road of trial and error.

Mr. Truman was asked about wages not going up and prices rising fast. He said he agreed, this was so and he is working on a plan.

Commenting on a statement made yesterday by Gov. Chester Mowles of Connecticut, former OPA administrator, favoring selective price controls, the President said that is being discussed but no decision has been reached.

Mr. Truman endorsed the attack by his special assistant, Averell Harriman, on Senator Taft (R-Ohio). In a speech before the AFL convention in Houston, Tex., Harriman accused Taft of further-

Southwest Teams
to Open Up
This Weekend

Dallas Tex., Sept. 21 — (AP) — Southwest conference football teams today put final polish on plays they hope will pay off the scoreboard Saturday.

Six of the seven teams — all but Rice — open the 1950 season this week. Arkansas' opener at Little Rock Saturday night is against Oklahoma A & M.

Yesterday, the pre-season favorite, Texas, went through a long practice on pass defense and kickoff returns. There was no rough work. Texas meets Texas Tech Saturday.

Rice continued to stress passing, while Texas A. and M. brushed up on all phases of its attack.

At Dallas, Southern Methodist
held a short defensive scrimmage. The Mustangs also worked on passing and kicking.

Arkansas went through a long defensive practice, while Baylor staged only a light workout.

Texas Christian started tapering off yesterday with a running and passing dummy scrimmage.

'B' Team Plays
Camden Here
Tonight at 8

Hope and Prescott tangled at Prescott Friday night, an annual rivalry that has lost much of its zest in recent years.

All indications point to probably the best contest in some time Friday when the two eleven meet on the Nevada county field at 8-o'clock.

Hope has been put through a rough grind this week with coaches Tricky and Martin trying to whip the boys into shape after their showing against DeQueen last week.

The Bobcats just couldn't click against the Leopards due mainly to inexperience. Their defense was exceedingly weak on passes and the offense floundered after the first quarter. Its true that all three DeQueen touchdowns came as a result of "breaks" but the score might easily have been more.

Prescott was snowed under by Camden last week by large score. Both teams will be seeking a first victory and the game will probably prove better than expected.
The Curly Wolves always fight Hope all the way and a victory this time is not inconceivable.

Meanwhile the Bobcat 'B' team tangles with the Camden Bees tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school stadium.

The Chinese custom of leaving ers makes the introduction of efficient harvesting machines difficult.

Hot Springs Has
2-1 Lead in Cotton Playoff

By The Associated Press
Hot Springs held a lead of two games to one as finalist in the Cotton States league playoff changed bases today.

The Bathers beat the Natchez Indians, 7-6, at Natchez last night for their second victory against one of the Indians.

Tonight the two teams will play at Hot Springs and they'll continue to play there until one club has won four games.

Hot Springs' Alex Cosmidis scored the tying run in the seventh inning last night on an error.
And then Dan Phalen was walked in with the winning run.

Bathers Manager John Antoeilli was ousted in the ninth inning after an argument with an umpire.
Bill Gingerich was the Hot Springs starting pitcher. But Natchez wounded him for four hits and four runs in the first inning.
With only one man out, Ed Shaefer relieved and held the Indians to four hits thereafter. Roy Jane went the distance for Natchez.

Laborites Win on Steel Vote
But Margin of Victory Makes the New Program Doubtful

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Britain's Socialist government has won a doubtful parliamentary victory. It narrowly defeated the Conservative attempt to compel its downfall over the controversial steel nationalization program.

This attack was led by former Prime Minister Winston Churchill
in best fighting form. It was preceded by the government's announcement that it would assume control of the country's vital steel industry on January 1.

Churchill made a motion which in effect called for condemnation of this program, and Attlee announced that his government would stand or fall on the vote.

The significance of this battle lies in the closeness of the result.
The Socialists won by only six votes — 308 to 300. This represented an all-out effort by both sides, and involved routing all members of commons out of bed to attend the session.

This means that the country also is almost equally divided (or was at the time of the general election last February) over the question of steel nationalization. That was the major issue of the election, in which Attlee sought a mandate for his program and got it by a hair's breadth.

Churchill naturally made the most of this almost fifty-fifty division of the country, and accused the Socialists of using their slender margin to "knock the other half"

about. As a matter of fact there have been reports that some of the Socialist leaders, including Attlee himself, haven't been too happy about the opposition to the steel program. Socialist doctrina-rians, however, have insisted on going the limit in nationalization.

Steel nationalization in England of course is in a different category from other industries, a barrier coal. Steel production is the very heart of the country's economy in normal times, and is doubly so now that the nation is in the midst of the great defense program.

Naturally this situation brings out the most vigorous of the ideological arguments pro and con. The Socialists reiterate that control of this great industry by capitalists is a menace to the national interests.
The opposition retorts that this is no time to remove directors who for years have been running the steel industry successfully, and replace them by government direction.

In short, this bitter battle is the epitome of the political differences between socialism and capitalism.
Obviously it will have to be ironed out before the government can claim a clear mandate from the almost equally divided electorate to go "all out" in inaugurating socialism.

Prime Minister Attlee presumably has this in mind, for he is said by informed sources to plan another general election early next year. This would be after steel nationalization is effective and the rearmament program is going full stream. It would give the electorate a wide open chance to declare itself.

The next general election will provide an interesting showdown, not only as regards steel but in connection with other Socialist programs which the country has experienced. The hotly disputed virtues of socialized medicine, for example, will be ironed out, along with heavy taxation and the high

East German Seizure Plan Is a Flop

Berlin, Sept. 21 — (AP) — East Germany's cold-war communists tried to take away land and light from their Western neighbors today — but flopped on both counts. At midnight the Reds arbitrarily cut off electric power deliveries to West Berlin. West Berlin got along on its own resources. Earlier in the night, on the outskirts of the British zone, a half dozen Russian soldiers tried to move their border barriers to annex 175 square yards of territory. Some 100 British infantrymen turned them back and British officials planned negotiating talks with the Russians to settle the mix-up today.

There were other incidents, also, indicating the Communists were systematically stepping up their war of nerves against Allied West Berlin.

1. Several hundred Communists tried to stage an unlicensed street demonstration in the French sector, but were scattered by police with fire hoses. About 30 Reds were arrested. 2. East German officials ignored a West Berlin offer that each side release police that had been arrested the day before in a series of tit-for-tat raids on each other's personnel.

3. The Communist press stepped up its propaganda barrage against the west, shrieking cries of "Ain't (American) and Tommy (British) go home."

4. Berlin's large traffic with west Germany remained partially crippled as some 50 barges lay tied up here with their cargoes. The Russians would not clear their crew lists for inter-zonal passage, claiming the lists were out of date.

Rehash of Congressional Reorganization

By JAMES MARLOW H

Washington, Sept. 21 — (AP) — In 1946 congress, top-heavy and out of date, reorganized itself to do business better.

How has the reorganization worked? It has and it hasn't. Some things have turned out pretty well. Some hardly at all. You probably can expect that result is a place where all 435 house members and the 96 senators are trying to have a finger in the pie.

One thing that's been a complete bust is congress' attempt to have its own budget. On the other hand, the 1946 act wiped out a battalion of unnecessary committees, and congress has stuck to that plan more or less well.

Take the case of the budget. Every year the President and his advisers in the executive branch of the government estimate how much it will cost to run the government another year. Then they send this estimate — called the budget — to congress, asking it to vote the necessary money. This budget goes to congress every January.

In the past, congress tackled this budget piecemeal, voting this government department so much that one so much.

And it never knew, and never was in a position to know, how much money it was going to vote altogether until the session was over.

The reorganization act tried to improve that sloppy performance by this plan:

Congress would receive the President's budget estimate in January, and no later than mid-February would come up with an estimate of its own.

Then it was supposed to stick to its own estimate and vote no more money than its budget called for. It was supposed to be able to do that for this reason:

1. First, it would estimate how much the government would collect in taxes, since government expenses are supposed to be paid out of tax money.

2. Then, knowing how much it could spend, congress could estimate how much it would spend.

In 1947 congress missed its own goal by $6,000,000,000. In 1948 it missed again, but by $2,500,000,000. In 1949 it didn't even produce an estimate. And this year it tried something new:

This year it tried wrapping up all the money it voted (appropriated) in one big bill. But it didn't get through with the bill until near the very end of the session.

Now take the committees. A lot of congressmen, probably most of them, think their power and importance are increased in direct proportion to the number of committees on which they serve.

In 1940 the senate had 33 standing committees (regular, all-year-round committees) and the house 48. Then there were whole batches of special committees set up to investigate this or that.

And the work of many committees overlapped. For example: Several committees might have a hand in the government's public works. The reorganization act tried to:

1. Cut down overlapping and unnecessary committees.

2. Concentrate under one committee the field which for example: Several committees might have a hand in the government's public works. The reorganization act tried to:

1. Cut down overlapping and unnecessary committees.

2. Concentrate under one committee the field which properly belonged to that committee.

So congress, under the act, reduced 33 senate standing committees to 15 and the 48 house committees to 10. And many special committees were wiped out.

Congress has stuck very closely to its new committee set-up. True, new batches of sub-committees of the standing committees have sprung up.

Some critics of congress point to that and say it's just a dodge by congressmen to have the same old special committees under another name.

But some of those keeping a close check on how the reorganization act works, argue this way: "Maybe there are too many sub-committees. But at least each of them, attached to a standing committee, is working in the field of that main committee and not going off into some other committee's domain."

Some other parts of the reorganization act have helped congress. For example: Some committee staffs — but certainly not all — have been strengthened with experts to help the committees do a more intelligent job.

Final Touches on Tax Bill by Friday

FRANCIS M. LUMAY
Washington, Sept. 21 —(AP)—Congress is expected to put the $4-billion tax boosting bill on President Truman's desk by tomorrow night in time to increase tax deductions 10 days before the start of the year.

A Senate conference committee is expected to break a deadlock over a complete agreement on the measure by Friday. Mr. T. L. Sumner, a quickly elected Rep. Doughton (D-NC) said he is pleased with the bill and expects the Senate to pass it and then the Senate will pass it.

are expected to approve the bill probably tomorrow.

The agreement cleared the way for Congress to adjourn this week-end, and after the November elections, when it will come back to consider a "second installment" war tax measure.

The present bill contains a pledge that this "second installment" bill will include an excess profits tax on corporations and that its effective date will be either July 1 or Oct. 1 of this year. The two tax measures together, while boosting 1950 collections materially, may increase taxes in 1952 by $12,000,000,000 to the highest level on record — even greater than the top collections in World War II.

The present bill, agreed upon after considerable trading and reversing, puts the nation's tax statutes near to a wartime basis. It raises the income taxes of over 50,000,000 individuals by almost $3,000,000,000 a year effective Oct. 1 (most people's taxes will go up about 20 per cent). It raises corporations' normal taxes by $1,500,000,000 a year, retroactive to apply to one-half of 1950 corporation income.

It picks up more millions by loophole plugging and other tax law changes. GI's fighting in Korea, and their officers, are given tax exemptions. The bill provides tax incentives for industry to retool for the production of defense materials. It also puts a 10 per cent manufac-

New York, Sept. 20 — It has seemed to me that some of the Vermont press, and particularly the Rutland Herald, has been more credulous than it need have been in dismissing as "sensationalist" the revelation by reporters from the "outside" of Red cells in the Randolph-Bethel area and in some of Vermont's institutions of learning.

After all, this really is "sensational" news but the word has been used so often to suggest dishonest journalism and exaggeration that in this instance it constitutes an example of Communist semantics. The Vermont press probably is unconscious of this fact, for there is no evidence that the papers actually are Communist apparatuses. These papers erred in taking a defensive position when they were caught flat-footed on a story in their own backwash. The thing to do in such a case is not to throw down the story but come from behind and clean it up.

I have been interested particularly in the Rutland Herald's treatment of Vilhjalmur Stefansson who owned a house jointly with Owen Lattimore, the professor who was accused on the senate floor by Senator Joe McCarthy. Not only did Stefansson share ownership of this house with Lattimore but he sold it to Mr. and Mrs. Ordway Southard, who were Communist party candidates for public office in Alabama in 1942. The Rutland Herald brought out the previously unknown facts that Southard was a student of Alaskan affairs, geography, topography and races and that Stefansson had allowed him to study in his "library" in New York which is devoted to arctic and particularly Alaskan subjects.

But the Herald apparently did not inquire into Stefansson's background except to accept the regular who's who type of biographical stuff which deals with his many degrees, expeditions and honors. He has for many years enjoyed lavish publicity, most of it favorable.

There is other date on Stefansson which should be considered in

Reds Revive Nerve War in Germany

Berlin, Sept. 20 — (UP) — The cold war which has plagued Berlin since 1945 flared up again today with announcement by a Russian sector power company that it will cut off electricity to the Western sector tonight.

The announcement came after Western German authorities arrested 44 East Berlin police in reprisal for the seizure of 25 Western police in East Berlin yesterday. Those arrests, in turn, were in reprisal for the arrest in Western Berlin of a group of policemen the day before.

East Berlin authorities said they would cut electric power at midnight because contract negotiations between officials of the East and West city governments were deadlocked.

It was known West Berlin authorities have been preparing for possible fuel cuts from the East and would be able to supply enough power for essential industries and home use. The Berlin housewife was almost certain, however, to encounter shortages of power.

The East German announcement was made by the Soviet-licensed ADN news agency. It said negotiations which have been going on since the last contract expired June 30 were deadlocked "because of the absolutely inadequate prices offered by the West."

relation to this incident. Incidentally, to clear up the really important question whether Stefansson ever was known as William Stephenson, which is the English equivalent of his Icelandic name, I would say that he told me himself that he was so known on occasion in his youth.

Stefansson is mentioned in "connection" with many Communist front organizations in material accumulated by the house committee on un-American activities. That does not prove him to be a Communist, of course, but it is information of legitimate value here.

If a person were associated with say 20 or 30 organizations sympathetic with the Methodist church, for example, wouldn't that indicate a sympathetic interest in that institution?

Complaint has been made that the "citations" of the committee often are based on nothing more than old clippings, letter-heads and programs of public meetings. But this is a very reliable way of investigating associations.

As to Stefansson, he is "listed" in the following manner in the following organizations, all of which are declared by the attorney-general of the United States to be subversive: Named "sponsor" on a letter-head of the American committee for the protection of foreign-born; named member of the board on letterhead of American council for a democratic Greece; named in Daily Worker as participant in conference of American council on Soviet relations; named sponsor on official folder of American-Russian Institute; named in New York Times as sponsor of American relief for Greek democracy; named in official leaflet as sponsor of citizens' committee to free Earl Browder; named in press release as signer of council for Pan-American democracy; named on official program as sponsor of meeting of exiled writers' committee of the League of American Writers; mentioned in Soviet Russia today as signer of call issued by National Council of Soviet-American Friendship; named in New York Times as signer of declaration by Reichstag free trial anniversary committee; listed on official program as sponsor of United American Spanish aid committee; named on program as sponsor of the win-the-peace conference.

When, in 1941, the American Communists celebrated the 50th birthday of Norman Talenire, one of the charter members of their party, Stefansson was a sponsor of this celebration. There are many other bits of information about Stefansson but the Rutland Herald simply quoted him as saying: "All sorts of persons, including mormons, have tried to convert me. I accept without skepticism Stefansson's assertion that he didn't suspect Southard of being a Communist when he gave Southard permission to study in his library in New York. No such library is listed in the telephone book, although the Rutland Herald says it has 60,000 titles on two floors and "has been called the world's largest arctic library."

The Herald says Stefansson said Southard was not allowed to study the "restricted" material on the ground floor. It generally gives him a very favorable buildup. It reflects an unquestioning belief that Stefansson is just a big, shaggy, good-for-nothing, absent-minded professor. He is a remarkably intelligent man, politically and otherwise. Another Vermont paper, the White River Valley Herald, says editorially that "according to Pegler, you can't draw a jury up here without getting one or two Communists on it."

But that is not what I said. I said that if Alger Hiss had got a change of venue from New York to Vermont, the Communists, then operating under cover, would have tried to plant one of their own on the jury and that just one Communist on that jury could have prevented his conviction. They don't bother with petty cases.

Fort Smith Attorney to Speak at Democratic Meet

Little Rock, Sept. 20 — (AP) — Floyd Barham, Fort Smith attorney, will be the keynote speaker at the Arkansas Democratic state convention. Opening here tomorrow at noon.

Barham, former prosecuting attorney, will speak Friday morning.

Other addresses on the two day program include Gov. McMath's acceptance speech. He will expand on that address in speaking to a dinner meeting of the Young Democrats, which will climax the party session Friday night.

McMath said today there might be some effort made to change some of the party rules at the convention, but added that he knew of no such move definitely scheduled.

He had said previously that he favors re-election of Chairman Willis Smith, Texarkana, and Secretary Frank Newell, Little Rock, "if they will serve."

Man Who Dreamed Charged With Strangling Wife

Rockwood, Tenn., Sept. 20 — (AP) — A man who told police he dreamed he had "struggled with a beast" after returning from church last night was charged today with strangling his wife and young son.

The bodies of Mrs. Ona Aikens, 22, and her son, Danny, 5, were found in the living room of their home early today. Roane county sheriff Marvin Stinecoper said Rufus C. Aikens, 31, was charged with murder.

Stinecoper said both the mother and son had suffered cut and bruises about the chest and face. He described the slayings as "the most pitiful I have ever seen."

He said Aikens told officers the following story:

He and his wife had been fasting for a week before attending a tent church meeting near the home last night. They went to bed at about midnight and he dreamed he was struggling with "a great, furry beast." He thought he was

Berlin magistrate and its delay tactics.

The seizures and counter-seizures of police began Monday when six Russian zone police were arrested upon entering the American sector with a convoy of trucks. They were charged with carrying weapons and wearing paramilitary uniforms.

Yesterday, east zone authorities countered by seizing 25 Allied sector police as they rode as passengers on a train through Eastern Berlin. Eastern sector officials offered to release them if the easterners would free the six "people's police."

Mr. Virgil Spiegel, 3032 Colerian Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio, a driver for Alber's Supermarkets, is confident that today he is doing the best job he has ever done in his life. That is because he says he has never felt better. To be first rate on the job, a man has to be in top notch condition. He attributes his feeling of well being to HADACOL because his system lacked those necessary vitamins B1, B2, Iron, and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Spiegel's own statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was told I had a nervous stomach. I took many pills and many other 'remedies'—nothing gave me effective relief. It affected my sleep, too—I would doze off and then wake up at the least little thing. I had a lot of gas on my stomach and it burned clear up in my chest. I was just beside myself in knowing just what to do. I heard how other folks having the same trouble I did were being helped by HADACOL. I started taking HADACOL and after the 2nd bottle of HADACOL I noticed an improvement. Now I am in first rate shape. I sleep well, have no more gas pains and the best thing is that my nervous stomach has completely cleared up. I can't thank HADACOL enough."

It Isn't Too Late to try HADACOL as thousands of other folks suffering from such deficiencies have done and benefited tremendously from HADACOL. Why, there are even hundreds of doctors who are now recommending HADACOL to their patients whose systems lack vitamins B1, B2, Iron, and Niacin. If you suffer from stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, heartburns, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies, give HADACOL a chance to help you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel great after the first few bottles you take or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial Size. Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50.

Truman Terms 'Red Ban' as Dangerous

Washington, Sept. 20 — (AP) — President Truman called on congress today to wipe out a senate approved proposal to ban economic aid to countries selling war potential goods behind the iron curtain.

"killing the mark of the beast."

He awoke at about 4 a. m. and reached over to find his wife and son, both of whom had gone to sleep in the bed with him.

Falling to find them, he went into the living room and saw their bodies. He ran next door to the home of his parents and officers were summoned.

He said the proposal is "fraught with danger to the United States and world peace" and would "weaken the free nations more than it would weaken the Soviet bloc."

Mr. Truman previously had been reported opposed to the proposal which the senate hitched to the $17,000,000,000 emergency defense money bill.

He expressed his views publicly today in letters to the chairman of the house and senate appropriations committee, just before the house was slated to take up the compromise measure.

The President wrote that no body can quarrel with the ostensible purpose of the amendment, sponsored by senate Republican Leader Wherry of Nebraska, but he said it would accomplish about the opposite of what is intended.

In similar letters to Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn.), of the senate committee and Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.), he urged congress to omit the rider.

"This amendment is a such grave importance, and is fraught with such danger to the United States and to world peace," Mr. Truman said, "that I feel I must make a special request to the congress to eliminate it in complete action upon this bill."

But despite the objections of Truman and other administration leaders, key men in the house predicted privately that the proposal would be approved.

It would cut off economic help to those countries which sell to Russia or her satellites arms, armaments or commodities which the defense department certifies can be used in the making of weapons. It would not affect military aid to nations receiving U. S. help.

Ostensibly aimed at Great Britain and other nations carrying on trade relations with Russia, the amendment was by Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican leader.

Gov. McMath Against New Race Track

Little Rock, Sept. 20 — (UP) — Gov. Sid McMath said today he will issue a written recommendation that the state racing commission turn down a proposal for a $2,000,000 race track at West Memphis.

The governor said his recommendation will be presented to the commission before it meets to give an answer to Robert Boileau of Mountain Home, representing Dixie Downs, Inc., on his application for a franchise for the big track.

McMath would not elaborate on his reasons for opposing the course, but said they would be in his recommendation.

Meanwhile, the descendants of the men who fought for the confederacy have issued an outraged protest against Boileau's plan to display the Confederate flag at race meets and to adorn the track with a statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

Their protest was contained in a letter by members of the Gen. Robert E. Lee Camp No. 197, sons of Confederate veterans.

Boileau proposed to fly the Confederate flag during the racing season, to adorn the track with a statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee on his famous horse, Traveler, and to dress track attendants in replicas of the Confederate uniform.

Neil Bohlinger, Little Rock attorney and member of the SCV, in a letter to the commission urged it to turn down any proposed "desecration of the statue of General Lee or the flags of the Confederacy."

Registering a strong protest against the use of the statue and flags for commercial purposes, Bohlinger continued:

"No man nor set of men is authorized to capitalize upon those things which are identified directly with the Confederate states of America."

The racing commission has taken Boileau's application under consideration and will give its answer at a called meeting in the near future.

Red China Smuggling Out Cards to U. S. Businessmen Requesting Small Tools

By LACHLAN MacDONALD (Anchorage, Alaska, Times) (For Hal Bayle)

Anchorage, Alaska — (AP) — Postcards bearing the new stamps of Communist China are being received here bearing requests for industrial tools to further the war effort in Red China.

Mailed from the Communist stronghold of Tientsin, a major seaport about 200 miles west of the Korean mainland, the cards are addressed to hardware stores and automotive supply firms.

Printed in English, beneath the letterhead of the North China import corporation, the message requests "the following reference material". Specifically it seeks "catalogs or bulletins on industrial tools and small tools" along with samples and discount charts. In addition the message asks that the corporation be put on the merchants mailing list.

On the face of the yellow-paper card is a large stamp bearing the portrait of Communist China Leader Mao Tse-tung, surrounded by tanks and airplanes. Waving over Mao is a victorious Red flag with the golden star of Red China.

"They must be extremely short of tools," remarked one dealer who received a card.

All who have reported receiving the requests for tools or information have taken the matter lightly. A few indignantly declared, "of SUBJECT: GUNS — Covered with coolie hats to keep out sun's rays, native troops at Tanghai, southern Formosa, attend an outdoor class in small arms instruction. Mah in foreground is cleaning an American-made carbine.

course, I'll ignore it."

That the cards are apparently smuggled from Red China to Hong Kong is evidenced by a footnote to the message explaining that replies can be sent in care of the Wu Yang Trading company at Hong Kong, whence it will reach us by the first available opportunity.

How many cards have been sent out is anybody's guess. Dealers who received them here feel it is an attempt by the Communists to obtain even small amounts of materials to rebuild their industries. Others feel it is an attempt to glean information from Alaska and regard it as out and out espionage.

"We're not at war with them," one dealer declared. "But I wouldn't trade as much as a postage stamp — no, not for all the tea in China."

The National Geographic Society estimates the population of Lhasa, capital of Tibet, at perhaps 50,000.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritation due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait. Try Borden's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often disappear, it's amazing how many times Borden's Pills help. They help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Borden's Pills today!

IS THE TELEPHONE COMPANY ARKANSAS' BEST CUSTOMER?

New Buildings and Alterations

The telephone company last year spent $355,000 in Arkansas for new buildings and for alterations to buildings.

That money went to building contractors, electrical contractors, plumbing contractors, painting contractors, etc. In turn, the workmen—carpenters, bricklayers, electricians, plumbers, painters, truck drivers, laborers—got their share of the money as the telephone system was expanded to bring more and better service to Arkansas.

In fact, last year the telephone business spent more money in Arkansas than the company's customers paid for local service and for long distance calls within the state.

Good telephone service is only a part of the contribution the telephone company makes to the welfare of Arkansas. Local businessmen, merchants, and workers benefit from the money the company, and those who work for it, spend in the state. It would be hard to find anyone in Arkansas who does not benefit in some way from the operation of the telephone business.

If new rates can be obtained that justify going ahead with the $90 million Greater Arkansas Telephone Program, the telephone business will spend even more money in Arkansas. Does anyone seriously question that this program means greater prosperity for Arkansas?

Better Buy Buick!

YOU CAN SEE here how smart it is—don't have to be told that it's the most quickly identified car on the road today.

You probably know that the engine under that broad bonnet is a Fireball straight-eight valve-in-head engine and a lively stepper in any company.

You can check the abundance of its room by the simple expedient of taking the family and trying out its spaciousness at the nearest Buick dealer's—and a very few minutes on the open road will satisfy you that all-coil springing, low-pressure tires and Buick's torque-tube drive really do produce a ride that is matchless for its soft comfort.

BUT RIGHT NOW, it may be that the money angle is the thing uppermost in your mind, and on that we'd like to make two points:

All our records go to show that this is the most economical Buick ever built. It is easy on gas, on oil, on tires, on upkeep.

And if you choose it with Dynaflo Drive,* it immediately eliminates all chance of friction-clutch repair and replacement—not to mention greatly reducing rear-axle and transmission maintenance.

Best of all, your initial outlay is a highly favorable one—whatever Buick you buy. For these brawny straight-eights—built rugged and solid for durable service—are priced at a level that makes them a standout buy in any price class.

Yes, better buy a Buick. Your dealer will be glad to demonstrate, glad to work out all the arithmetic of a deal. See him right away and get an order signed.

DOROTHY DIX

Decisive Husband

Dorothy Dix: I am a man who has been married sixteen years. I am a woman sixteen years old. I am a man who has been married sixteen years. I am a woman sixteen years old. I am a man who has been married sixteen years. I am a woman sixteen years old.

that after ten days I went back home. Only to begin with I had never married at all. Now I have just completed six weeks at Reno and with the divorce so near I am beginning to think I might want her after all. Still I have not enjoyed married life enough even to try to fix up our house, and I am not stingy, and I am not in love with her or anyone else, but I hate to think of being tied to her as long as I live. What shall I do?

R. H. S.

Answer: My advice to you is to go on and get your Reno divorce for the psychological effect it will have on you. It will clarify your feelings for you as nothing else can. You will lose your wife only to find her, so to speak, and my prophecy is that the next thing you will do after getting your decree absolute will be to buy a marriage license.

Act Your Age

You are suffering from two mistakes. The first is that you are refusing to be your age. At 50 you are expecting yourself to be as sentimental and romantic as a boy, and have all the thrills and palpitations of a young lover. Forget it. Don't expect to have a young heart any more. You can't run and jump as you did when you were 20. You don't want to sing just for the sheer joy of living. You've lost plenty of the enthusiasm and beliefs with which you started out as a boy, but that doesn't keep you from enjoying life in a saner, soberer way, nor from having many years of usefulness and happiness before you. Only your emotions have slowed down to the tempo of 50.

Your second mistake was throwing marriage into the discard before you ever gave it a chance. You didn't even try to make it a success. You didn't even attempt to build a home together. Any thing would have been a failure that you went into that spirit.

After marriage almost every husband and wife go through a period of panic in which for a moment they regret the step they have taken. A sudden horrible sense of finality seizes upon them of having to live with this man or this woman until death shall part them. A sunk feeling at realizing that they have forfeited their personal liberty. Marriage isn't as glamorous as they expected and probably nine out of ten would call it off if they could without scandalous complications. But the mood passes. They get their second wind and a clearer insight into marriage and turn it into what it was meant to be — a happy companionship of a man and woman.

You are suffering from a kind of matrimonial shell shock and you need a sense of liberty to cure you. Once you realize you are free, I think you will deliberately put yourself back into double harness.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a young woman of 22 torn between two loves. One of these young men is insanely jealous, so much that he makes scenes and says he is going to whip any one who tries to go with me. He has a new car, but doesn't have a job, and it seems that he isn't able to hold one because he devotes too much time to me. The other young man I go with has a job, but no car. Neither of these young men could support me. Would you drop both and try some one else, or would you try to work out the present situation?

A GIRL IN DISTRESS

Answer: Neither one of the young men seem anything to write home to Mother about from your account of them, but if you must choose between them take the man with the job who isn't trying to support a car he can't afford. At least, he seems a gentleman, and a reasonable human being and to have some consideration for your dignity and good name, which the cad who goes around making scenes and assuming the right to boss you does not possess.

Whatever you do, don't be foolish enough to marry a jealous man. That way misery lies, for jealousy is one of the faults that cannot be cured.

Dear Miss Dix: Speaking as an elderly man, I wonder why the modern girl does not realize that the greatest charm and attractiveness of men that a woman can have is femininity. If girls knew how they looked to men they would cast their shorts and their britches into the ragbag and get some skirts. GRANDFATHER

Answer: I agree with you, Grandfather, that a girl never makes a greater mistake than when she throws her femininity into the discard. It is her trump card and the one on which she can depend on winning out in both the game of love and the business.

I have often wondered if any man ever proposed to a girl who had on trousers. It must make one feel as if he were popping the question to his little brother.
